EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Each quarter, a committee of employees chooses a Full-Time Employee of the Quarter through nominations submitted by fellow employees based upon one or more distinguishing actions or qualities that the employee exhibited during the previous quarter. These qualities typically reflect on one or more of the four Core Beliefs of the City. The City's Core Beliefs are that all employees are expected to be Responsive, Results-Oriented, Trust-Builders and Accountable. This quarter's winner was selected based upon her daily actions which reflect those Core Beliefs.

Nicole Black, an employee of the Police Department, is a highly motivated and responsible employee who daily demonstrates the Core Beliefs while interacting with fellow employees and with the citizens she comes in contact with. She is recognized by her coworkers as someone who is always willing to do whatever it takes to get the job done. She is eager to fill in when help is needed from other divisions within the department and is a great example of an employee that always has the Department and the City's best interest in mind and therefore warrants recognition as the Full-Time Employee of the Quarter.
